LIVESTOCK.
P. & S. Docket No. D-01-0013.
Decision and Order.
Filed May 30, 2002.

Packers and Stockyards – Default – Failure to file answer – Failure to file objections – Failure to pay when due – Failure to pay full purchase price – NSF checks.

The Judicial Officer (JO) affirmed the Default Decision issued by Administrative Law Judge Jill S. Clifton (ALJ): (1) finding Respondent issued checks in payment for livestock purchases which checks were returned unpaid by the bank upon which they were drawn because Respondent did not have and maintain sufficient funds on deposit and available in the accounts upon which the checks were drawn to pay the checks when presented; (2) finding Respondent purchased livestock and failed to pay, when due, the full purchase price of the livestock; (3) finding $281,970.90 of the $477,591.30 Respondent failed to pay when due remained unpaid at the time the Complaint was issued; (4) concluding Respondent willfully violated 7 U.S.C. §§ 213(a) and 228b; (5) ordering Respondent to cease and desist from violating 7 U.S.C. §§ 213(a) and 228b; and (6) suspending Respondent as a registrant under the Packers and Stockyards Act for a period of 5 years. The JO rejected Respondent's contentions that the Default Decision should be set aside based on Respondent's late payment of livestock sellers, Respondent's agreement with one livestock seller to effect payment in a manner other than required by 7 U.S.C. § 228b(a), and Respondent's belief that an answer to the complaint was not required.

Charles E. Spicknall, for Complainant.

Bruce H. Wilson, for Respondent.

Initial decision issued by Jill S. Clifton, Administrative Law Judge.

Decision and Order issued by William G. Jenson, Judicial Officer.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

JoAnn Waterfield, Deputy Administrator, Packers and Stockyards Programs, Grain Inspection, Packers and Stockyards Administration, United States Department of Agriculture [hereinafter Complainant], instituted this proceeding by filing a "Complaint" on September 26, 2001. Complainant instituted this proceeding under the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, as amended and supplement (7 U.S.C. §§ 181-229) [hereinafter the Packers and Stockyards Act]; and the Rules of Practice Governing Formal Adjudicatory Administrative Proceedings Instituted by the Secretary Under Various Statutes (7 C.F.R. §§ 1.130-.151) [hereinafter the Rules of Practice].

Complainant alleges that Wayne W. Coblentz, d/b/a Coblentz & Sons Livestock [hereinafter Respondent], willfully violated sections 312(a) and 409 of the Packers and Stockyards Act (7 U.S.C. §§ 213(a), 228b): (1) by issuing checks in payment for livestock purchases which checks were returned unpaid by the bank upon which they were drawn because Respondent did not have and maintain sufficient funds on deposit and available in the accounts upon which the checks were drawn to pay such checks; and (2) by purchasing livestock and failing to pay, when due, the full purchase price of the livestock (Compl. ¶¶ II-III).

On October 2, 2001, the Hearing Clerk served Respondent with the Complaint, the Rules of Practice, and the Hearing Clerk's service letter dated September 27, 2001.¹ Respondent failed to answer the Complaint within 20 days after service, as required by section 1.136(a) of the Rules of Practice (7 C.F.R. § 1.136(a)). On October 24, 2001, the Hearing Clerk sent a letter to Respondent informing him that an answer to the Complaint had not been filed within the time required in the Rules of Practice.²

On March 18, 2002, in accordance with section 1.139 of the Rules of Practice (7 C.F.R. § 1.139), Complainant filed "Motion for a Decision Without Hearing By Reason of Default" and a proposed "Decision Without Hearing By Reason of Default." On March 23, 2002, the Hearing Clerk served Respondent with Complainant's Motion for Decision Without Hearing By Reason of Default, Complainant's proposed Decision Without Hearing By Reason of Default, and the Hearing Clerk's service letter dated March 20, 2002.³ Respondent failed to file objections to Complainant's Motion for Decision Without Hearing By Reason of Default and Complainant's proposed Decision Without Hearing By Reason of Default within 20 days after service, as required by section 1.139 of the Rules of Practice (7 C.F.R. § 1.139).

On April 12, 2002, pursuant to section 1.139 of the Rules of Practice (7 C.F.R. § 1.139), Administrative Law Judge Jill S. Clifton [hereinafter the ALJ] issued a "Decision Without Hearing By Reason of Default" [hereinafter Initial Decision and Order]: (1) finding Respondent issued checks in payment for livestock purchases which checks were returned unpaid by the bank upon which they were drawn because Respondent did not have and maintain sufficient funds on deposit and available in the accounts upon which the checks were drawn to pay the checks when presented; (2) finding Respondent purchased livestock and failed to pay, when due, the full purchase price of the livestock; (3) finding $281,970.90 of the $477,591.30 Respondent failed to pay, when due, remained unpaid at the time the Complaint was issued; (4) concluding Respondent willfully violated sections 312(a) and 409 of the Packers and Stockyards Act (7 U.S.C. §§ 213(a), 228b); (5) ordering Respondent to cease and desist from violating sections 312(a) and 409 of the Packers and Stockyards Act (7 U.S.C. §§ 213(a), 228b); and (6) suspending Respondent as a registrant under the Packers and Stockyards Act for a period of 5 years (Initial Decision and Order at 2-3).

On May 10, 2002, Respondent appealed to and requested oral argument before the Judicial Officer. On May 28, 2002, Complainant filed "Complainant's Opposition to Respondent's Appeal Petition." On May 29, 2002, the Hearing Clerk transmitted the record to the Judicial Officer to rule on Respondent’s request for oral argument and issue a decision.

Respondent’s request for oral argument before the Judicial Officer, which the Judicial Officer may grant, refuse, or limit (7 C.F.R. § 1.145(d)), is refused because Complainant and Respondent have thoroughly addressed the issues and the issues are not complex; thus, oral argument would appear to serve no useful purpose.

Based upon a careful consideration of the record, I agree with the ALJ’s Initial Decision and Order. Therefore, pursuant to section 1.145(i) of the Rules of Practice (7 C.F.R. § 1.145(a)), I adopt with minor modifications the Initial Decision and Order as the final Decision and Order. Additional conclusions by the Judicial Officer follow the ALJ’s conclusions of law, as restated.

The Secretary may also assess a civil penalty of not more than $10,000 for each such violation. In determining the amount of the civil penalty to be assessed under this section, the Secretary shall consider the gravity of the offense, the size of the business involved, and the effect of the penalty on the person's ability to continue in business. If, after the lapse of the period allowed for appeal or after the affirmance of such penalty, the person against whom the civil penalty is assessed fails to pay such penalty, the Secretary may refer the matter to the Attorney General who may recover such penalty by an action in the appropriate district court of the United States.

SUBCHAPTER V—GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 228b. Prompt payment for purchase of livestock

(a) Full amount of purchase price required; methods of payment

Each packer, market agency, or dealer purchasing livestock shall, before the close of the next business day following the purchase of livestock and transfer of possession thereof, deliver to the seller or his duly authorized representative the full amount of the purchase price: Provided, That each packer, market agency, or dealer purchasing livestock for slaughter shall, before the close of the next business day following purchase of livestock and transfer of possession thereof, actually deliver at the point of transfer of possession to the seller or his duly authorized representative a check or shall wire transfer funds to the seller's account for the full amount of the purchase price; or, in the case of a purchase on a carcass or "grade and yield" basis, the purchaser shall make payment by check at the point of transfer of possession or shall wire transfer funds to the seller's account for the full amount of the purchase price not later than the close of the first business day following determination of the purchase price: Provided further, That if the seller or his duly authorized representative is not present to receive payment at the point of transfer of possession, as herein provided, the packer, market agency or dealer shall wire transfer funds or place a check in the United States mail for the full amount of the purchase price, properly addressed to the seller, within the time limits specified in this subsection, such action being deemed compliance with the requirement for prompt payment.

(b) Waiver of prompt payment by written agreement; disclosure requirements

Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a) of this section and subject to such terms and conditions as the Secretary may prescribe, the parties to the purchase and sale of livestock may expressly agree in writing, before such purchase or sale, to effect payment in a manner other than that required in subsection (a) of this section. Any such agreement shall be disclosed in the records of any market agency or dealer selling the livestock, and in the purchaser's records and on the accounts or other documents issued by the purchaser relating to the transaction.

(c) Delay in payment or attempt to delay deemed unfair practice

Any delay or attempt to delay by a market agency, dealer, or packer purchasing livestock, the collection of funds as herein provided, or otherwise for the purpose of or resulting in extending the normal period of payment for such livestock shall be considered an "unfair practice" in violation of this chapter. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to limit the meaning of the term "unfair practice" as used in this chapter.

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE'S
INITIAL DECISION AND ORDER
(AS RESTATED)

Introduction

Respondent failed to file an answer within the time prescribed in section 1.136(a) of the Rules of Practice (7 C.F.R. § 1.136(a)). Section 1.136(c) of the Rules of Practice (7 C.F.R. § 1.136(c)) provides that the failure to file an answer within the time provided in section 1.136(a) of the Rules of Practice (7 C.F.R. § 1.136(a)) shall be deemed, for purposes of the proceeding, an admission of the allegations in the complaint. Further, pursuant to section 1.139 of the Rules of Practice (7 C.F.R. § 1.139), the failure to file an answer constitutes a waiver of hearing. Accordingly, the material allegations in the Complaint are adopted as Findings of Fact. This Decision and Order is issued pursuant to section 1.139 of the Rules of Practice (7 C.F.R. § 1.139).

Findings of Fact

1. Respondent is an individual whose business mailing address is P.O. Box 650, Sugarcreek, Ohio 44681.
2. Respondent, at all times material to this proceeding, was:
 - (a) Engaged in the business of a dealer buying and selling livestock in commerce for his own account; and
 - (b) Registered with the Secretary of Agriculture as a dealer to buy and sell livestock in commerce and as a market agency to buy livestock on a commission basis.
3. Respondent, in connection with his operations subject to the Packers and Stockyards Act, on or about the dates and in the transactions set forth in paragraph II of the Complaint, issued checks in payment for livestock purchases which checks were returned unpaid by the bank upon which they were drawn because Respondent did not have and maintain sufficient funds on deposit and available in the accounts upon which the checks were drawn to pay the checks when presented.
4. (a) Respondent, in connection with his operations subject to the Packers and Stockyards Act, on or about the dates and in the transactions set forth in paragraph III(a) of the Complaint, purchased livestock and failed to pay, when due, the full purchase price of the livestock.
 - (b) At the time the Complaint was issued, on September 20, 2001, $281,970.90 of the $477,591.30 referred to in paragraph III(a) of the Complaint remained unpaid.

Conclusions of Law

By reason of the Findings of Fact in this Decision and Order, Respondent willfully violated sections 312(a) and 409 of the Packers and Stockyards Act (7 U.S.C. §§ 213(a), 228b).

ADDITIONAL CONCLUSIONS BY THE JUDICIAL OFFICER

Respondent raises two issues in Respondent's Appeal Brief. First, Respondent asserts he has paid all of the debts that are the subject of this proceeding, except his debt to The Kidron Auction, Inc., and that he has an agreement with The Kidron Auction, Inc., to effect payment to The Kidron Auction, Inc., in a manner other than required in section 409(a) of the Packers and Stockyards Act (7 U.S.C. § 228b(a)). Respondent admits that his agreement with The Kidron Auction, Inc., does not "technically satisfy" the requirements in section 409(b) of the Packers and Stockyards Act (7 U.S.C. § 228b(b)) for waiver of the full and prompt payment requirements in section 409(a) of the Packers and Stockyards Act (7 U.S.C. § 228b(a)) because

Respondent and The Kidron Auction, Inc., did not agree in writing before Respondent made the purchases of livestock from The Kidron Auction, Inc., which are the subject of this proceeding. (Respondent's Appeal Brief at 1st and 2nd unnumbered pages.)

I agree with Respondent's assertion that the agreement between Respondent and The Kidron Auction, Inc., described in Respondent's Appeal Brief, does not meet the requirements in section 409(b) of the Packers and Stockyards Act (7 U.S.C. § 228b(b)) for waiver of the full and prompt payment requirements in section 409(a) of the Packers and Stockyards Act (7 U.S.C. § 228b(a)).⁴ Therefore, Respondent's assertion in his Appeal Brief that he has an agreement with The Kidron Auction, Inc., for the payment of purchases of livestock, which are the subject of this proceeding, is not a basis for setting aside the ALJ's Initial Decision and Order. Moreover, Respondent's late payment, in violation of section 409(a) of the Packers and Stockyards Act (7 U.S.C. § 228b(a)), to other livestock sellers identified in the Complaint, is not a basis for setting aside the ALJ's Initial Decision and Order.

Second, Respondent contends his failure to answer the Complaint was an honest mistake. Respondent asserts he believed his communication with Charles E. Spicknall, Complainant's counsel; his payment of the debts that are the subject of this proceeding; and his agreement with The Kidron Auction, Inc., would "remedy the present matter." (Respondent's Appeal Brief at 2nd unnumbered page.)

Respondent has raised no meritorious basis for his belief that he was not required to answer the Complaint. Moreover, I cannot find anything in the ⁴Respondent states the agreement with The Kidron Auction, Inc., does not "technically satisfy" the requirements of section 409(b) of the Packers and Stockyards Act (7 U.S.C. § 228b(b)) because Respondent and The Kidron Auction, Inc., did not agree in writing to effect payment in a manner other than provided in section 409(a) of the Packers and Stockyards Act (7 U.S.C. § 228b(a)) before Respondent made the purchases of livestock from The Kidron Auction, Inc., which are the subject of this proceeding. I infer Respondent's position is that the requirement of a written agreement prior to the livestock purchases is not an important requirement. Respondent cites no basis for this position, and I can find no basis for Respondent's position. The Packers and Stockyards Act explicitly provides that the parties to the purchase and sale of livestock may expressly agree in writing, before the purchase or sale, to effect payment in a manner other than required in section 409(a) of the Packers and Stockyards Act (7 U.S.C. § 228b(a)). Legislative history applicable to the 1976 amendment to the Packers and Stockyards Act, which added section 409, emphasizes that a written agreement to waive the prompt and full payment requirements must be made prior to the purchase or sale of livestock, as follows:

This section adds to title IV of the Packers and Stockyards Act a new section 409 which, absent an express prior agreement in writing between the buyer and seller, requires each packer, market agency, or dealer purchasing livestock before the close of the next business day following the purchase of livestock and transfer of possession thereof to wire transfer funds to the seller's account or to deliver to the seller or his duly authorized agent, at the point of transfer of possession of the livestock, a check for the full amount of the purchase price.

H.R. Rep. No. 94-1043, at 7 (1976) (emphasis added).

record before me that would cause Respondent to believe that he would not be deemed, for purposes of this proceeding, to have admitted the allegations in the Complaint if he failed to answer the Complaint within 20 days after the Hearing Clerk served him with the Complaint.

The Hearing Clerk served Respondent with the Complaint, the Rules of Practice, and the Hearing Clerk's September 27, 2001, service letter on October 2, 2001.⁵ Sections 1.136(a), 1.136(c), 1.139, and 1.141(a) of the Rules of Practice clearly state the time within which an answer must be filed and the consequences of failing to file a timely answer, as follows:

§ 1.136 Answer.

(a) Filing and service. Within 20 days after the service of the complaint . . . , the respondent shall file with the Hearing Clerk an answer signed by the respondent or the attorney of record in the proceeding

(c) Default. Failure to file an answer within the time provided under § 1.136(a) shall be deemed, for purposes of the proceeding, an admission of the allegations in the Complaint, and failure to deny or otherwise respond to an allegation of the Complaint shall be deemed, for purposes of the proceeding, an admission of said allegation, unless the parties have agreed to a consent decision pursuant to § 1.138.

§ 1.139 Procedure upon failure to file an answer or admission of facts.

The failure to file an answer, or the admission by the answer of all the material allegations of fact contained in the complaint, shall constitute a waiver of hearing. Upon such admission or failure to file, complainant shall file a proposed decision, along with a motion for the adoption thereof, both of which shall be served upon the respondent by the Hearing Clerk. Within 20 days after service of such motion and proposed decision, the respondent may file with the Hearing Clerk objections thereto. If the Judge finds that meritorious objections have been filed, complainant's Motion shall be denied with supporting reasons. If meritorious objections are not filed, the Judge shall issue a decision without further procedure or hearing.

§ 1.141 Procedure for hearing.

(a) Request for hearing. Any party may request a hearing on the facts by including such request in the complaint or answer, or by a separate request, in writing, filed with the Hearing Clerk within the time in which an answer may be filed Failure to request a hearing within the time allowed for the filing of the answer shall constitute a waiver of such hearing.

7 C.F.R. §§ 1.136(a), (c), .139, .141(a).

Moreover, the Complaint clearly informs Respondent of the consequences of failing to file a timely answer, as follows:

Respondent shall file an answer with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250, in accordance with the Rules of Practice governing proceedings under the Act (7 C.F.R. § 1.130 et seq.). Failure to file an answer shall constitute an admission of all the material allegations in this complaint.

Compl. at 6.

Similarly, the Hearing Clerk informed Respondent in the September 27, 2001, service letter that a timely answer must be filed pursuant to the Rules of Practice and that failure to file a timely answer to any allegation in the Complaint would constitute an admission of that allegation, as follows:

Although, on rare occasions, default decisions have been set aside for good cause shown or where the complainant states that the complainant does not object to setting aside the default decision,⁸ generally there is no basis for setting aside a default decision that is based upon a respondent's failure to file a timely answer.⁹

⁸See In re Dale Goodale, 60 Agric. Dec. 670 (2001) (Remand Order) (setting aside the default decision because the administrative law judge adopted apparently inconsistent findings of a dispositive fact in the default decision, and the order in the default decision was not clear); In re Deora Sewnanan, 60 Agric. Dec. 1121 (1996) (setting aside the default decision because facts alleged in the complaint and deemed admitted by failure to answer were not sufficient to find a violation of the Packers and Stockyards Act or jurisdiction over the matter by the Secretary of Agriculture); In re Veg-Pro Distributors, 42 Agric. Dec. 273 (1983) (Remand Order) (setting aside the default decision because service of the complaint by registered and regular mail was returned as undeliverable, and the respondent's license under the PACA had lapsed before service was attempted), final decision, 42 Agric. The Rules of Practice provide that an answer must be filed within 20 days after service of the complaint (7 C.F.R. § 1.136(a)). Respondent did not file a timely answer. Respondent's first and only filing in this proceeding was May 10, 2002, 7 months 8 days after the Hearing Clerk served Respondent with the Complaint. Respondent's failure to file a timely answer is deemed, for purposes of this proceeding, an admission of the allegations in the Complaint and constitutes a waiver of hearing (7 C.F.R. §§ 1.136(c), .139, .141(a)).

Accordingly, there are no issues of fact on which a meaningful hearing could be held in this proceeding, and the ALJ properly issued the Initial Decision and Order.

Application of the default provisions of the Rules of Practice does not deprive Respondent of his rights under the due process clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.¹⁰

For the foregoing reasons, the following Order should be issued.

ORDER

Paragraph I

Respondent, his agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with his activities subject to the Packers and Stockyards Act, shall cease and desist from:

1. Issuing checks in payment for livestock purchases without maintaining sufficient funds on deposit and available in the account upon which the checks are drawn to pay the checks when presented;
2. Failing to pay, when due, the full purchase price of livestock; and
3. Failing to pay the full purchase price of livestock.

The cease and desist provisions of this Order shall become effective on the day after service of this Order on Respondent.

Kan. 1980) (concluding a hearing was not required under the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution where the respondent was notified that failure to deny the allegations of the complaint would constitute an admission of those allegations under the Rules of Practice and the respondent failed to specifically deny the allegations). See also Father & Sons Lumber and Building Supplies, Inc. v. NLRB, 931 F.2d 1093, 1096 (6th Cir. 1991) (stating due process generally does not entitle parties to an evidentiary hearing where the National Labor Relations Board has properly determined that a default summary judgment is appropriate due to a party's failure to file a timely response); Kirk v. INS, 927 F.2d 1106, 1108 (9th Cir. 1991) (rejecting the contention that the administrative law judge erred by issuing a default judgment based on a party's failure to file a timely answer).

Respondent is suspended as a registrant under the Packers and Stockyards Act for a period of 5 years; Provided, however, That upon application to the Packers and Stockyards Programs a supplemental order may be issued terminating the suspension of Respondent as a registrant under the Packers and Stockyards Act at any time after the expiration of the initial 150 days of the 5-year period of suspension upon demonstration by Respondent that the livestock sellers identified in the Complaint have been paid in full; And provided further, That this Order may be modified upon application to the Packers and Stockyards Programs to permit Respondent's salaried employment by another registrant or a packer after the expiration of the initial 150 days of the 5-year period of suspension and upon demonstration of circumstances warranting modification of the Order, such as a reasonable and current schedule of restitution.

The registration-suspension provisions of this Order shall become effective on the 60th day after service of this Order on Respondent.
